Terms & Conditions

(1) Application: your application (including anything you add at interview or afterwards) should be accurate, not omit any facts that are relevant and not be misleading. If we find that there are significant errors or omissions in the information you have supplied to us in the course of your application you will not be offered a prize, or you will have your prize withdrawn or terminated.

(2) Selection: the selection process will be fair. No applicant will have, or should seek or accept, any unfair advantage. If we find that you have secured an unfair advantage in the selection process we reserve the right not to offer you a prize, or withdraw or terminate your prize.

(3) Entry clearance: you must tell us when you apply if there is anything (such as previous convictions or associations with terrorist organisations) that may be an impediment to securing a visa or entry clearance to study overseas. If for any reason you cannot obtain a visa to study in the desired country of study, then the British Council may withdraw the offer of a prize. You should not make commitments, especially commitments with financial consequences, unless you are certain that there will be no impediment to you securing a visa or entry clearance to study.

(4) Offer withdrawal: British Council reserves the right to withdraw the offer of an IELTS Prize if in its sole determination it believes that the circumstances are such that this is in the best interests of the applicant or British Council.

(5) Commitment: If you receive the IELTS prize, you agree for your IELTS score to be published for promotional purposes. You also agree to become an IELTS ambassador to share your study experience with others in talks and seminars, feature in promotional videos, as well as provide testimonials and photos which may be published or used by the British Council for promotion purposes.

Data Protection

Thank you for providing us with information about yourself on this form. Your personal information will be used in line with British Council standards. British Council will treat all personal information in accordance with UK law and its own privacy policy. British Council will not sell or disclose your details to third parties for commercial reasons.

We will look after the information carefully and use it to consider your suitability for an award and to manage the application process. It will be made available to staff at the British Council and non-British Council members of any assessment panel coordinated by the British Council. If you are unsuccessful the information will be held securely and destroyed in due course.

Under UK data Protection law you have the right to ask for a copy of the information we hold on you and the right to ask us to correct any inaccurate information. If you want more information about this please contact your local British Council office, or see our data protection website <https://www.britishcouncil.org/privacy-cookies/data-protection>.
